FREDERICK WALLIS APPOINTED TO FINE POSITION

Information has been received here from New York City that Fred A. Wallis, of Paris and New York, has been appointed by Mayor Hylan to the important position in his cabinet of commissioner of charities and corrections, carrying with it a salary of $10,000 per year.

Mr. Wallis is eminently qualified for this position. His efforts during the past years for the moral uplift of humanity will be given added zest and his opportunities in his new position will be unlimited. He will have control of every charitable and penal institution in Greater New York.

Mr. Wallis, who was until recently commissioner of immigration at the port of New York, has taken a profound interest in the immigration question, and his experience gained while holding that position will add greatly to his usefulness in his new position.

Mr. Wallis is the second Bourbon county man to hold this responsible position, John W. Keller, of Riddles Mills, Bourbon county, having filled the position under Mayor Van Wyck several years ago.

OUR PRINTING OUR STAR SALES-MAN

When THE NEWS job rooms receive an order for printing, we do not go to work on the theory that the customer merely wants something "set up."

The personal intimate touch which is dominant in our establishment is assurance that your sales ideas will not be wasted in the process of printing.

Printing, to be useful, must have compelling qualities. If it carries those qualities, it becomes an indispensable business asset.

You will make no mistake by placing your orders for printing in the hands of THE NEWS job men, for like a famous breakfast food, "There's a reason," and "We know how." Work done when promised. Cheap work done good; good work done cheap.

THE NEW YEAR, 1923

With all its joys and sorrows, the old year of 1922 is fast drawing to a close and its dying breath fills the air in tones mighty like a dirge. Those who have tasted the bitter cup of disappointment should wash their hands of the old year, and all that it leaves behind, and try to make the coming year a much better one.

This is a pretty good old world after all, and our lot is just about what we make it. So let us all try to live as nearly to the Golden Rule as we can, and give proper thanks to Him who makes it possible for us to enjoy the blessings of the land of liberty.

To each of our readers and to each of our business patrons, to all our friends, and even our enemies, if we have many, we wish a Happy New Year, and thus it must be if you will only know that true happiness comes from within.

Bring what the New Year may, to ourselves, our friends, our city, our county, our State and our Nation, there will be genuine joy, when its days are numbered, in the realization that we have done, what we could, to alleviate suffering, to soothe sorrow, to promote peace and happiness and justice, and to diffuse the blessed gospel of love, charity and tolerance. Our opportunities for service may not be brilliant, but they exist. We may never be known far outside our little circle of family and friends, but no such circumscribed field limits our usefulness or our possibilities of service to the city and county, since there are so many ways in which it can be done. And one of these will be to publish the best county paper in Central Kentucky.

THE NEWS will endeavor in the new year to maintain the same high standard and merit the approval of all, that it has during the year now closing. To one and all, then, A Happy New Year!

GOOD PRICES FOR TURKEYS

Thirty-two turkeys averaging 17½ pounds, raised by Miss Nancy Lou Owens, daughter of Clay Owens, at her home on the Ford Mill pike, near Paris, brought the sum of $203.20, in a Winchester market. The young lady feels proud of her success in raising turkeys for a profitable price.

COURT NEWS

Roy Vansant, formerly of Paris, was arraigned in the County Court at Carlisle Wednesday afternoon before Judge A. B. Tilton, on two charges, one of transporting spirituous liquor, the other with having liquor in his possession. The maximum penalty, $300 fine and sixty days in jail, was given him in each case. Vansant announced his intention of taking an appeal to the higher court.

Vansant was placed under arrest following the finding of about twenty gallons of moonshine liquor at the home of Mrs. Bessie Dunn, in Carlisle, about two weeks ago. The case against Mrs. Dunn, charged with having liquor in her possession, was continued when called in the County Court, Wednesday, on account of illness of the defendant.

June Tutter and Charles, alias "Scuffles" Clark, colored, were arrested by Chief of Police Link and Patrolman George M. Hill, charged with an assault on George Evans, colored farm hand, and robbing him of $14. The hold-up took place on Sycamore street. Evans alleged the men held him up at the point of a revolver, and dragged him into an alley between two buildings, and after beating him severely took his money. They were given a hearing in the County Court Wednesday afternoon before Judge George Batterton, and held to the grand jury at the March term of the Bourbon Circuit Court. Tutter's bond was fixed at $750, and Clark's at $300. Both were sent to jail in default of the requisite bond being furnished.

Tutter, French "Sook" Clay, Henry Spencer and Frank Scott, all colored, were arrested charged with attempting to rob Parker Barnhill and Walter Leeds, two white men, about eleven o'clock, Christmas night, as the men were driving their car into the garage of the Kenney Motor Co., at the corner of Main and Eighth streets. The evidence stated that Tutter had pulled Barnhill out of his car and told one of the other negroes to choke off the engine while they got the driver. An employee of the garage heard the commotion and came to the rescue, with a revolver, dispersing the negroes before the robbery was completed. The men were given a hearing Wednesday afternoon before County Judge George Batterton, in the County Court, and held to the grand jury, Tutter under $500 bond, Spencer under $500, Scott under $250, and Clay under $150. All were remanded to jail.

Sheriff M. Peale Collier, Deputy Sheriffs James Gibson and Douglas Thomas and Patrolman Roy Turner made a descent on the home of Bob Collier, colored, in Claysville, and after a close search, found one quart of moonshine, in concealment, and a number of empty bottles, that had previously contained liquor. Collier was placed under arrest and when brought before County Judge George Batterton could not remember where he got the liquor. He was sent back to jail to try out a memory course, until such time as his memory should be in better condition to serve him.

FIRE THREATENS GARAGE

Only the quick and efficient work rendered by the Paris fire department prevented what threatened to be a serious fire Monday night when they were called to the Franklin garage at the corner of Main and Second streets, by an alarm from Box 41.

A colored man passing by saw smoke coming from a window in the rear of the garage and promptly sent in the alarm. When the firemen arrived they found a big touring car in the machine shop in the rear of the garage in flames. Breaking in a side window they soon had two streams of water playing on the machine and on the ceiling of the machine shop, which was blazing freely.

The fire was supposed to have originated in the ignition system of the machine. Three other machines in the garage were damaged. A machine shop in the basement suffered considerable loss from water.

The garage is operated by Clay Costigan. His loss is partly covered by insurance. The building is owned by Mrs. Henry Butler. It has been the scene of three serious fires in the past twenty-five years.

PARIS CITY SCHOOLS TO OPEN JANUARY 2.

With the opening of the City Schools next Tuesday many activities will begin. The week's vacation will put new life and enthusiasm into both teachers and pupils. The basket ball season for both boys and girls will open January 5. Prof. Shaw has arranged most interesting schedules, and the First National Bank had these schedules printed in very attractive form and gave them to the school, for which gift we thank the bank very much. Miss Robins and Mr. Dawes will have their teams in excellent condition for the opening games.

This year's vocational guidance course of lectures will open January 2, and will consist of twenty-four lectures. A number of Paris speakers will appear on their program.

Several new evening classes will open with the next semester. The University Extension Course will start again next week and will be open to new students.

One of the most interesting events of the new semester will be the starting of the new Freshman class. Prof. Shaw, who is succeeding so well with his work in the High School, will have charge of this new class.

Three of the most interesting numbers in our lyceum course are yet to be given.

Rehearsals on the Sophomore play will start soon after the mid-year examinations are over.

Work on the 1923 annual is well under way now, and is in charge of Prof. Scott, which insures its success.

Miss Bramblett will start the Senior Class play in February and will train two complete casts.

Miss Lockhart will start training the debating team January 22 for the State contest.

Miss Harbold and the Latin Club will soon start work on the State Latin Tournament, which will be held in Paris in May. "The Parisian Oracle," the Latin club paper, will be mailed in February to every Latin teacher in Kentucky, giving the plans for the tournament.

Miss Butler will have the science laboratories restocked ready for the new semester.

Miss Woodruff plans the organization of a romance language club for the High School next semester.

The English teachers in the High School are planning the organization of a State association of English teachers.

Early in January the High School, with the aid of Mr. Humphries, of the Bourbon County Y. M. C. A., will begin preparations for the Bible study contest. Paris won two State cups last year and will try to win both cups again.

Mr. H. M. Clay will prepare an exhibit of work done by the students in manual training.

Since the opening of school in September we have had more parents visit the school than we have ever had. We enjoy this very much, and we hope from now on to have visitors in every room every day. It encourages both pupils and teachers. Miss Brannan, in the fourth grade, has, I believe, had a visitor every day since September, and a number of other teachers have nearly averaged one a day. Come whenever you can, you are always welcome.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

The Paris Public Library, which closed on December 22 for the holidays will be open at the usual hours on Tuesday, January 2. The Librarian thanks the reading public for courtesies and appreciation during the year now closing.

MONDAY, NEW YEAR'S DAY A LEGAL HOLIDAY

Next Monday, January 1, being New Year's Day, is a legal holiday, and as such will be observed by the banks and the postoffice, which will be closed for the day. The usual opening regulations will be observed at the postoffice. No rural mail deliveries will be made that day, and but one collection and one delivery in the business district. The day will be made a holiday in other ways, most of the business houses closing for the day. It will also be Court Day, but hardly likely to be a brisk one, on account of the presence of the universal bill-collectors and other considerations.

Attend to matters of finance and postage to-day and to-morrow, if possible, for if you wait until Monday, you are likely to meet with disappointment, and then wonder why someone hadn't told you about it.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

Plans are being made for a big time at the Paris Y. M. C. A. on New Year's Day.

Starting at 9:30 a. m. the younger boys gym class will put on an exhibition in the gymnasium led by Harry Lancaster. The boys have been working hard to make this interesting, and parents and friends are urged not to miss this part of the program.

At 11 o'clock two races have been arranged for. A half-mile race for boys under 14 years, with two silver medals as prizes, will interest the younger boys. For boys over fourteen, a three-mile race has been arranged, with silver and bronze medals as prizes.

At 2:00 p. m. the midget team of last year is scheduled to battle against this year's team in basket ball.

At 3:00 p. m., the social committee has arranged a musical program, consisting of vocal and instrumental selections, followed by refreshments.

The wind-up of the day will consist of a basket ball game between the Paris Senior team and the Lawrenceburg five. The Paris boys met defeat at the hands of Lawrenceburg last week, so they are out to win this game on their own floor. The game will start at eight p. m. The building will be open for inspection all day and the public is cordially invited to come and spend the day.

AGED MAN STRUCK BY AUTO

Capt. F. E. Nelson, contractor, and former business man of Paris, is confined to his bed at his home on Seventh street, as the result of an accident which occurred on Eighth street Wednesday afternoon.

Capt. Nelson was passing the Kenney Motor Co.'s garage on Eighth street, when a car, said to have been driven by Everett English, backed rapidly out, striking Capt. Nelson, who did not see the machine in time to get out of the way. He was thrown down, the car striking him in the left groin, inflicting a deep gash. He was otherwise injured, but the extent had not been determined yesterday by his physicians, who were fearful of internal injury having been sustained. On account of his advanced age, he being now in his eightieth year, it is feared the accident may prove fatal.

HEAVY HOLIDAY TRADE IN PARIS.

The holiday trade in Paris is said by merchants to have been the heaviest in recent years. All the merchants report a rushing business, especially in the last days, or on Monday, Saturday was one of the busiest days of the year. People this year made their purchases of a more substantial nature than heretofore, and gave gifts that really had some substantial value. Many merchants reported selling out their stocks completely, and some had to replenish certain lines at the very last moment.

At the postoffice the business transacted was a of large volume than the year before. Postmaster Payne and his force were up to their eyes in packages, etc., from the very start of the holiday season, but an efficient system enabled them to get everything away in ship shape and the general public had no complaints to make.

CHILD BADLY INJURED

Jimmie Craven, little son of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Craven was seriously injured Tuesday by being thrown from a bicycle he was riding on Eighth street. The little fellow was trying to avoid striking a little girl who was riding on a wheel approaching him, when his wheel swerved, throwing him to the street. He sustained serious injuries about the head and body, and was rendered unconscious for a long time. He was picked up and taken to his home, where he was given medical attention.

REAL ESTATE DEALS

The Blue Grass Realty Company sold for John Richards, his five-room cottage, located on Lillieston avenue, to Ollie Wilson, for a price not given out for publication.

William Hall sold to Arris Overly a brick cottage located on High street, between Fifteenth and Sixteenth streets, for a private price. The property has a nice garage attached.

LOW WATER REVEALS RIVER TRAGEDY

Low water, uncovering the skeleton of the old steamboat Pacific, in the Ohio river, at Uniontown, Ky., brings back to the memories of the old people at Uniontown one of the worst disasters that ever occurred on the lower Ohio river. The craft, which operated in the early sixties between Cincinnati and New Orleans, was one of the most magnificent of the day, being a side-wheel boat. While coaling near Uniontown a deck light, in those days an iron bucket filled with fagots and fed with rosin, swung too close to some hay on the boat, setting it on fire. The owner of the mine, where the boat was coaling, to protect his own property, cut the anchor lines, allowing the blazing craft to float down the river. Several of the crew, passengers and live stock perished in the flames and the boat went down in the narrows, known as the Highland Rocks.

E 500 feet; thence S 80 deg. 10 min. E 22 feet to place of beginning, containing 11-803.1000 acres. This is a part of the same tract of land conveyed to J. W. Wheeler, et al., by John F. Richardson, by deed recorded in Deed Book 99, page 480, Bourbon County Court Clerk's office. There is excepted out of the foregoing boundary of land a pass-way from the tract of land conveyed to Thomas Butler, of color, said passway being across the creek just below the old dam from Butler's land out to the road, and being reserved for the benefit of the said forty-six acres of land conveyed to said Butler.

Said sale will be made upon credits of six and twelve months, the purchaser or purchasers being required to execute their two bonds for equal parts of the purchase price, with good and approved surety, bearing interest at the rate of six per cent (6%) per annum from date of sale, until paid, having the force and effect of judgments, with a lien retained upon the property to further secure their payment.

Said sale is made for the purpose of satisfying the plaintiff's debt of Three Thousand and Twenty-nine Dollars and Forty-two Cents ($3,029.42) with interest from September 1, 1921, and the costs of this proceeding, the debt, interest and cost being estimated as of the date of sale, at Thirty-five Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($3,550.00).

Public Renting!

Charles Willett, & c. . . Appellants

Vs.

A. H. Willett, & c. . . Appellants

By virtue of an order of the Bourbon Circuit Court made and entered in the above styled cause on the 2nd day of December, 1922, the undersigned Receiver will rent publicly at the Court House door in Paris, Kentucky, to the highest and best bidder, on about the hour of 11 o'clock a. m., the farm located near Hutchison Station, on the Hutchison Station and Bethlehem turnpike, owned by the late Bessie Burgess, containing about 65 acres with residence, out-buildings and tobacco barn thereon. Said renting will be for the term of one year, beginning March 1, 1923, and ending March 1, 1924. Said rent to become due and payable on March 1, 1924, for which the renter will be required to execute bond with good surety to be approved by and payable to the undersigned.

The crop to be raised will be announced at the time of the renting.
JOHN N. STEELE,
Receiver.

PUBLIC SALE

— OF —

Good Bourbon Co. Farm of 203½ Acres

The undersigned administrators of Mrs. Mollie Rice, deceased, will on Wednesday, January 10, 1923

on the premises on the North Middletown and Plum turnpike, about half-way between North Middletown and Plum, beginning about the hour of 10 a. m., expose to public sale her farm of 203½ acres, lying next to the lands of Robert Hopkins, George Wilson and Mrs. George Flanders.

This farm is divided into two tracts, one 86 acres, the other 117½ acres. The tract of 117½ acres has on it a 2-story, 5-room frame dwelling, with combined stock and tobacco barn, also pair of livestock scales, lasting water any season. Tract of 86 acres has one small tenant dwelling, lasting water. Each tract has abundance of pike frontage.

This farm will be offered first in separate tracts, then as a whole, best bid to be accepted; positively no by-bids. The high dollar buys the farm.

This farm has about 60 acres in rye, balance in grass. Graded schools and churches within about 2½ miles, both at North Middletown and Little Rock.

Terms made known on day of sale.

Immediate possession.

We will be glad to show you this place at any time.

A VOTER AT 13

Col. Jim Mart's "Old-time Notes" contains the following regarding a well-known pioneer citizen of Paris: "Death, at Paris, aged 76, of Noah Spears, a native of Bourbon county. He developed so early in manly appearance, that at the age of thirteen he voted, being supposed to be a man. When a young man he traded produce to New Orleans, in flatboats, and walked back."

Our idea of a busy man is the Recording Angel taking notes of the actions of delegates to a convention.

The pressers, cleaners and renovators have small use for the man who never says "Dye."

CHRISTMAS AND 1923

May the sunshine of the Christmas cheer enter into your heart and dwell therein all the days of the New Year.

The way we are heading, it won't be long before some company will even put a meter on "the love light in her eyes."

If January is not too cold, some of the New Year resolutions that will be made may have a chance to last until February.

If you would garner from life's store And find your basket full, A little push will get you more Than trusting to a pull.

Don't say you have nothing to be thankful for. How would you like to wear knee pants and a powdered wig and stay fussed up all day?

Things are happening so rapidly in the world to-day that we would not be surprised to hear that some aviator had skimmed the cream off the Milky Way.

A man who gave the name "Benjamin Franklin" has been arrested in a raid on an alleged dope ring. But then you see, even great men's names are not protected by copyright.

In the midst of a hard, grinding day, no matter what your station in life may be, it is awfully satisfying and comforting to think suddenly that some pal somewhere is loving you.

The worst pest we know of to-day is the fellow who grabs you by the collar and gleefully chirps into your ear how his old boat gets twenty-five miles an hour out of a gallon of gasoline.

It was said that Fatty Arbuckle's Christmas stocking contained the following: "When you were bad you were horrid, but now you're good, oh, so very good, our welcome's really torrid. Will S. Hays."

If Henry Ford should use in Kentucky for manufacturing, the coal he is buying, Kentucky would realize handsomely on the coal, but shipping coal out does not increase Kentucky earnings.

When farm labor becomes organized the agricultural producers will begin talking about the good old days when there was no union scale, and when the San Jose scale was the only thing a fruit grower had to contend with.

When the old year 1922 is ended and the new year 1923 is begun we shall wish to remember only such abiding things as love and faith and gladness and beauty. Let us therefore put things into the new year right at the beginning.

The headline in the daily papers, "264 Republicans Released From Prison," caused irritation and alarm among many Kentucky Democrats until they looked again and saw that it occurred in Dublin, Ireland, and that Governor Morrow had no hand in it.

If it were not for the gossips the country newspapers would have a better chance to spread abroad the happening of the hour, the day or the week. What kind of a chance has the newspaper to get "an exclusive" when the gossips get hold of a choice piece of news?

A very ordinary Paris man made the following very wise observation to me the other day: "I have lived nearly sixty years now, and I have made up my mind that in the thousands of times I got mad at somebody else I did not change the other fellow's belief one iota, nor enlarge my own faith a bit."

A pretty Paris girl came storming out of a certain shoe store the other day. Curiosity got the better of me, and I asked the grinning clerk who stood at the counter, "What's the matter?" The clerk replied: "Well, old man, I've got revenge at last. That was a telephone girl, and when she got her shoes I got my revenge, for I gave her the wrong number, just like she's handed me many times."

The children were gathered around a towering Christmas tree in Paris, the other night, aglow with happiness, the tree aglow with tinsel, lights and ornaments, and old Santa Claus was just distributing presents. One of the assistants was attracted by the countenance of a street urchin, none too warmly clad, and not being able to place him as one of those expected to be present, she sought to draw him out, so asked him: "Are you glad you came, little fellow?" To which the youngster replied vociferously: "Hell, yes! Watcher, think I'm here fer." He got all he wanted in a hurry.

BANK HEAD

Joseph H. Waterfill, first cousin of T. E. Waterfill, of the Paris Milling Co., was elected vice-president of the Citizens Union National Bank in Louisville, at a meeting of the Board of Directors held Wednesday. Mr. Waterfill will continue to act as head of the Fourth street branch of the bank.

Mr. Waterfill came to Louisville in December, 1906, from the Lawrenceburg National Bank to take a position as clerk at the Union National Bank, then located at Sixth and Main streets. He filled the position of teller, bookkeeper, assistant cashier and vice-president. Upon the merger of the Citizens and Union banks the latter part of 1919 he became vice-president of the Citizens Union National Bank. In August, 1919, he was transferred to the Fourth Street Bank as vice-president and cashier.

LOSES STOCK OF BUTTER

C. S. Arthur, traveling representative of a wholesale butter company, left his truck standing in front of an up-town pool room the other night, while he was arranging some business matters with the proprietor. While this was going on some sneak thief or thieves relieved his vehicle of a large lot of creamery butter, and a wallet, containing some checks. The loss was discovered by Mr. Arthur when he came out, and was reported to the police. Payment was immediately stopped on the checks but the butter was not recovered. It was stated that a large lot of it found its way to the counters of local merchants, who did not know that it had been unlawfully disposed of. It was stated that a negro man sold several pounds of the butter to a local grocer, stating that it had been given to him by a country woman to sell for her. He disappeared and has not been located.

How fortunate it is for some people that they don't have to give a note at the bank when they borrow trouble.

A Resume of Events In Religious Circles For Present and Future

—Services at St. Peter's Episcopal church, Sunday morning at 10:45 o'clock. Sermon and services by the rector, Rev. Walter S. Cain. Sunday School at 9:30 a. m.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH —Services will be held at the regular hours. The subject of the morning sermon will be "God, Bluffing The World." The subject for the evening hour will be "Character Witnesses For God." Rev. T. S. Smylie, the pastor, will preach at both hours. The session has planned a social visitation of all the members of the church. Committees to do the visiting will be appointed Sunday. Mr. Roxie Davis has consented to act as Chairman. The visitation will be held the first Sunday in January. This event proved to be such a delightful experience to the committees and to those visited the last time that all will mark down January 7, the day of the visitation, as a day to be looked forward to. Hours of service: Sunday School 9:30 a. m.; Christian Endeavor Societies 6:30 p. m.; preaching at 10:55 a. m. and 7:15 p. m. Everybody welcome.

Thirty-eight baskets were filled and sent out on Christmas evening by the Sunday School children.

COLORED WOMAN SUICIDES

While in a delirious state, super-induced by illness, Cynthia Taylor, colored woman of Millersburg, left her home at midnight Tuesday and suicided by leaping from the railroad bridge into Hinkston creek. The body was found several hours later by a searching party. A jury composed of W. A. Butler, A. C. Ball, David Cassity, F. A. Herbert, D. E. Clarke and G. S. Allen, summoned by Coroner Rudolph Davis, returned a verdict in accordance with the facts.

THE SALVATION ARMY APPEAL

Have you made your donation to the Salvation Army Home Service Appeal Fund? If not, you can do so by sending it to Buckner Woodford, treasurer, or to Mayor E. B. January, chairman of the appeal.

If there ever was a worthy organization the Salvation Army surely is. We should be very grateful for what the Army did for our boys during the world war. This work should be encouraged.

We should not fall down on the appeal. There is no telling when we may need the good offices of the Salvation Army again.

CONGRESSMAN CANTRILLS CARD FOR GOVERNOR

On page six of this issue will be found a three-column statement from Congressman J. Campbell Cantrill, in a formal announcement of his candidacy for the office of Governor of Kentucky. It will be found very interesting reading to all interested in State politics.

POPLIN TRANSFERRED

E. L. Poplin, who was formerly agent for the Kentucky Central Life Insurance Company, at this point, and who was transferred to Carlisle and then to Georgetown some time ago, has again been transferred to the Carlisle office. He will take up his duties on January 1. He will succeed Mr. Butcher, who will return to duty in the Louisville office.

COAL TRAINS COLLIDE

Three freight cars were derailed and an engine injured considerably when two freight trains collided in the Louisville & Nashville South Paris yards. No one was injured and there was no interruption of traffic. The accident occurred near the switch located about two hundred yards south of the coal chute. The rails were twisted by the wrecking engine in an effort to pull the cars back on the track, but the damage was soon repaired.

GREETINGS

We want to thank our customers for their loyal support in the past year. We feel that your confidence has inspired us to try to always have the best and to give you all of the service possible for your money. We promise to maintain the same quality or better in the future and ask your continued valued patronage.

GETS HIS WISH

One Paris youth expressed a rather original and unique wish during the pre-Christmas season, which he found gratified when he awoke Christmas morning. This young American, Grover Baldwin, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Baldwin, of Higgins avenue, sent a note to Santa Claus couched in the following language:

"Dear Santa Claus: Miss Lizzie wants us all to have Bibles, and I do wish you would bring me one."
When young Baldwin arose early Christmas morning he found among the many other things left by an obliging Santa Claus, a handsome Bible.

WOODBROW AND "TOPPY" CELEBRATE

Two great men, former President Woodrow Wilson, of Washington, and "Topsy" Theodore Nix, of Paris, have the distinction of having been born on the same day, December 28, sixty-six years ago. Both celebrated the return of their natal day yesterday in a quiet, orderly fashion, like good old fellows should. "Topsy," as has been his custom, sent a warm greeting to the former President, congratulating him upon having had the rare good luck of being born on the same day as he was, and wishing him many happy returns of the day. Both are semi-invalids, but both happy in being alive, and both asking nothing better than being allowed to rest in the friendship of the great common people.

CAMPAIGN FOR BETTER MORALS

Mrs. Nathalia I. Potter, of West Frankfort, Ill., was in Paris several days this week, in the interest of the campaign for Better Morals. Mrs. Potter delivered a short address at the Grand Opera House Tuesday night, outlining briefly the objects of the campaign in which she is engaged.

During her stay she solicited contributions to help in prosecuting the work, which she is undertaking as an individual and not under the auspices of an organization, being very successful in securing funds here.

Mrs. Potter has lectured and worked in all the large cities of America, in the interest of a higher standard of morals, and for the moral uplift and betterment of women in particular. From Paris she went to Lexington, which will be the scene of her efforts for several days.

D'YE MIND THE TIME

When These Things Happened In Paris, As Told In THE NEWS' Files!

DAYS OF AULD LANG SYNE

There's no denying that to most of us there is a certain satisfaction in reviewing the events of long ago, as they are presented to us, either casually or by force of some reminiscent strain of the moment. And to those who lived here in the long ago the recalling of events in the old days of Paris affords a peculiar satisfaction all its own. They, perhaps, more than we who have grown used to the old place, will appreciate these items, taken at random from a copy of THE BOURBON NEWS of Tuesday, May 2, 1882:

It would be mirthful for one's optics to fall on Bally Paton riding a bicycle, but it would hardly provoke a grin for Bally to fall on one's optics.

Mrs. Col. Bob Stoner has executed in fine style, a painting of the Rev. Geo. O. Barnes, on a china tea plate.

O. J. Wiggins, of Covington, and Thos. H. Waller, of Cincinnati, who, by the way, are among the cleverest and most prosperous young business men in those cities, spent Sunday in this city and vicinity.

Under the new-time schedule, Cincinnatians are allowed excursion rates to the High Bridge every Sunday, where they can stop three hours and return on the regular evening train.

McIntyre & Swiney have named their chestnut colt by Wanderer dam Katie Pearce, "McNicol" in honor of the great St. Louis tailor of that name. This colt is a full brother to Lizzie S. and will be handled by Burt Scully.

John Stuart wants to borrow a fine saddle horse and a brass band, to take him to the Conclave at Covington.

Owing to no free passes being given over the Southern road, Craddock hasn't monkeyed over to the gospel stand at Georgetown a single time.

Mr. Burt Scully's stable from Bourbon county, composing thirteen flyers, arrived to-day. Look out for a dark one among this string. Burt is a second "Summer Coon."—Lexington News.

Ike Smith, colored, the driver of Keller Thomas' stallion, New York, died of apoplexy the other night. Ike was the trainer of Steinway, Gen. Croxton, Lady Monroe, Mollie Long, and several good ones.

THE NEWS is arranging a whistling match between Ike Duffy and Ben Booker. A twenty pound watermelon will be given for the first prize, and a circus ticket for the second. The preludatory piece will be ourangoutang reel. All Lexington editors will be invited.

The marriage of Miss Maggie Ferguson, the accomplished and attractive daughter of J. W. Ferguson, one of Bourbon's largest land and stock owners, to Mr. Thomas H. Waller, a good looking, clever and successful lumber merchant of Cincinnati, is announced to take place on Tuesday, June 13th.

Joe Dickey is evidently looking for a flood. He has a skiff chained on a cliff one hundred feet above high water mark.

Jim Taylor reports having seen a whippoorwill in town the other evening. That's nothing — there's a whippoor-dick up town every day all the time.

Col. Caldwell reports the following court days sales: 11 two-year-old cattle, at $30 per head; 9 do., at $37; 13 do., at $26.30. More machinery on the market than ever before and business duller. No good horses on the market. A few Eastern buyers for horses bought a few good ones privately.

The will of the late C. V. Higgins, Sr., was probated yesterday. The homestead residence and furniture and $50,000 in cash were given to the widow; the Texas land to Matt Stone's children; and the balance of the estate to be equally divided between C. V. Higgins, Jr., and his grandson, W. E. Hibler—that of Hibler being entailed. The estate is estimated at about $300,000. C. V. Higgins, Jr., and Russell Mann were the executors, without security.

Lizzie Smoot maliciously struck "lawyer" John Jones on the forehead with a rock Saturday, and covered his innocent simplicity with about a quart of unnecessarily shed blood. The "lawyer" demands that his white pals shall see that justice is dealt to the arrogant lassie.

Turney & Hart made the following sales last Saturday: To G. F. Griffith, Dayton, Ohio, a fine barouche gelding; to John Ross, a Vindexman, fine and stylish; to Henry Bryant, a nice combined gelding; to T. C. Jefferson, a Harrison Chief gelding.

CANTRILL ENTERS GOVERNOR'S RACE

Seventh District Congressman Announces Candidacy For Nomination

Strong Statement of His Position on State Issues—Tribute to Woodrow Wilson

TO THE DEMOCRATS OF KENTUCKY:

I have been much impressed with the campaign conducted by numerous Kentucky newspapers demanding that a business man only should be nominated for Governor. I am in sympathy with this movement. I have waited for weeks for some outstanding Democrat and business man to announce his candidacy. In fact, I have on numerous occasions talked with one of the most successful business men and one of the most loyal Democrats in the State, urging him to run for the Democratic nomination for Governor, and offered my support in case he should make the race. This gentleman declined to enter the race.

Many active Democratic men and women in all sections of the State have asked me to stand for the Democratic nomination for Governor. I have decided to announce as a candidate.

The fact that I own and operate several farms in Scott and Fayette Counties I believe entitles me to be classed as a business man. If I do not come under the classification of a business man, then the newspapers demanding a business man for Governor have shut out of political consideration every farmer in the State. The farmer of today is as much a business man as the merchant, broker, banker or manufacturer. The great majority of the business men of Kentucky are farmers, and being one of them I believe I know their trials and hardships, and that if I am elected Governor I can be of service to them and to the State as a whole, because when the farmer prospers all lines of business share in that prosperity. The chief problems to be solved in Kentucky are in the main of an agricultural nature, and Kentucky has not had a farmer Governor for almost forty years. The Governor of the State can personally attend to but a small part of the State's business. Most of the business of the State is actually transacted by those whom the Governor appoints under the laws passed by the Legislature. The business of organization is the chief duty of the Governor, and it is absolutely necessary for the welfare of the State that the Governor work in harmony with the State Legislature and the organizations of the various State Departments.

In recent years I have been charged with the duty of getting thousands of men and women into compact working organizations, both in a political and in a business way. In 1916 I was State Chairman of the Democratic Campaign Committee in Kentucky which rolled up a majority of nearly thirty thousand for the Democratic ticket, and in that organization there were ten thousand active men and women in the State. For three years I was State President of the Society of Equity with its thousands of farmer members, and this was the organization which was one of the pioneer movements teaching cooperation among the farmers. Years ago this organization did the work which is now being carried on on a larger scale by several splendid Farmers' Organizations of today.

I mention these matters simply to show that I have had experience on a large scale along organization lines, which make up in part the duties of the Governor. To properly organize the many branches of the State Government is a job requiring experience in organization work. I am convinced that the voters of the State are more interested in the platforms that the candidates stand for than in the candidates themselves, and I consider it proper in my announcement to very briefly state some of the leading issues which are of interest to the citizens of Kentucky. In announcing myself as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor, I wish to emphasize the fact that I consider the Governorship of our State the highest honor which can be given a Kentuckian, and I pledge myself to the people of Kentucky that if elected Governor, under no circumstances would I seek the Senatorship or any other office but would fill out the term completely for which I was elected. No man in the Governor's chair can give the State his best service when he has his eye on some future political preferment.

I favor a Primary Election to determine the nomination of the Democratic candidate for the Governorship. I believe it would be political suicide for our Party to make the nomination in any other way. Only in a Primary Election can the women voters of the State give full expression to their political opinions.

I think the greatest service a public officer can render the State at this time is to attend strictly to the business of the State and to leave it to the business men to handle their own business and to the people to regulate their own affairs, so long as they do not violate our present laws. To make it still plainer, I think we have enough within the revenue of the State, if it is necessary to do so.

I am heartily in favor of the construction of a highway system which will closely tie together our people in all sections of the State. As a matter of fact, Kentuckians do not know each other as they should and we have three distinct sections in our Commonwealth. Many of our problems would be solved if the three sections of the State were linked together by good roads, so that our people could really know each other and work together for the common good. I am informed by expert men who have studied this question that this plan can be carried out without increased taxation on existing property.

Good roads and good schools go together and every citizen will agree that everything possible should be done for the education of our children. I would like to see our public schools the equal of those of any State in the Union and I will work to that end. I am also of the opinion that every encouragement possible should be given to our State University and that it be placed on a plane equal to the University of any other State. If I am elected Governor I will stay on the job and give the State a business administration, and the best that is within me.

If elected Governor, I will call to my aid some of the leading business men in different lines and seek their counsel and support in solving the many difficult problems which confront our people. No man can solve these problems alone, and the candidate who promises to do so is the worst type of a demagogue seeking votes. If elected, I promise to do the very best I can with the counsel and advice of leading men and women of our State to solve our business difficulties for the best interests of the Commonwealth.

I enter this race free from any political promises and absolutely free from any help or promise of help in anyway from any business firm or corporation anywhere.

It is well known to the State that for years I have been an advocate of cooperative organization among the farmers. Farming is the chief business in Kentucky and I am delighted that our cooperative organizations are proving so successful. I congratulate the bankers of Kentucky on the stand they have taken in supporting the Farmers' Cooperative Movement, and as a farmer I thank them for their help in our time of need. For the past two years I have been actively at work in the field to organize the farmers, both in the Burley District and the Black Patch, and I trust I will be pardoned when I state that I have always paid my own expenses in these campaigns. This has been a considerable sum for a man of my limited means but I was glad to make the contribution of both time and means to help perfect our Farmers' Organizations.

I believe in equitable and living wages for men and women in all lines of industry. The best interests of the Nation are served when those who labor own their own homes and can give their loved ones not only the necessities of life but the comforts as well.

I am unalterably opposed to the injection of partisan politics into the management of the penal and charitable institutions of the State.

Under our present system of elections we have an election in Kentucky every year. Much money could be saved to the tax-payers in registrations and elections and the people relieved of much worry if we consolidated our elections. I favor any plan which will bring about this result.

I have the highest regard for the distinguished gentleman who has announced as a candidate for Governor and for those whose announcements I am informed will soon be forthcoming. No act or utterance of mine will mar the campaign. We have had entirely too much strife within our own party in the past and I am hopeful that the campaign will be settled upon the merits of the candidates themselves and their issues, so that when the decision is made we will go into the final election with a united Democratic Party. I am informed by many active Democrats in all parts of the State that if I am nominated we can expect to poll the full vote of the Party, and of careful survey and investigation I am convinced that if nominated I can build up an organization which will carry our Party to success in the final election beyond any question. I am absolutely sincere in my desire to serve Kentucky. For four years in the House of Representatives in Kentucky, for four years in the State Senate, and for fourteen years in the Congress of the United States I have represented a great and a patriotic people. In the last two elections I have not had opposition from the Republican Party. The people of the Seventh Congressional District would not have given me this service if I had neglected the business entrusted to me. I have faithfully tried to serve them, and if elected Governor my ambition will be to render a full measure of service.

I served in Congress under the leadership of that great President, Woodrow Wilson, and always gave him and his policies loyal support. When my Party called me to manage the State Campaign in 1916 for President Wilson I accepted the responsibility, and we carried the State by an overwhelming majority. Although a man of moderate means I paid the deficit of that campaign amounting to a good many thousands of dollars and have never regretted the expenditure. In 1920 the National Democratic Committee called me to New York to take charge of the organization work there, and for months I labored day and night for Party success. We knew that conditions were such that we could not win but we fought as best we could to the last ditch. I mention these personal matters to show that I have tried to give something in return for the favors which my Party has shown to me.

It is well known that farm lands and real estate in the cities are bearing heavy burdens of taxation. If I am elected Governor, I will make a full investigation of the taxes being paid by all classes of property and if it is found that certain classes of property are escaping their share of taxes, then I will certainly recommend legislation to remedy this defect in our taxing system.

Recent political developments demonstrate that there is a splendid opportunity under proper leadership to bring eastern Kentucky and the largest city to our Commonwealth back into the Democratic fold. If elected Governor, I will make every effort to give such a good administration and to work in harmony with the Democrats from the sections of our State mentioned above, that there will be no doubt about the outcome in future elections.

No doubt other issues will arise during the campaign and so far as I am concerned they will be openly and frankly met. I submit my candidacy to the democracy of the State with the hope that it will prove acceptable.

Hon. Campbell Cantrill, Candidate For Governor

tencky are farmers, and being one of them I believe I know their trials and hardships, and that if I am elected Governor I can be of service to them and to the State as a whole, because when the farmer prospers all lines of business share in that prosperity.

The chief problems to be solved in Kentucky are in the main of an agricultural nature, and Kentucky has not had a farmer Governor for almost forty years. The Governor of the State can personally attend to but a small part of the State's business. Most of the business of the State is actually transacted by those whom the Governor appoints under the laws passed by the Legislature. The business of organization is the chief duty of the Governor, and it is absolutely necessary for the welfare of the State that the Governor work in harmony with the State Legislature and the organizations of the various State Departments.

In recent years I have been charged with the duty of getting thousands of men and women into compact working organizations, both in a political and in a business way. In 1916 I was State Chairman of the Democratic Campaign Committee in Kentucky which rolled up a majority of nearly thirty thousand for the Democratic ticket, and in that organization there were ten thousand active men and women in the State. For three years I was State President of the Society of Equity with its thousands of farmer members, and this was the organization which was one of the pioneer movements teaching cooperation among the farmers. Years ago this organization did the work which is now being carried on on a larger scale by several splendid Farmers' Organizations of today.

I mention these matters simply to show that I have had experience on a large scale along organization lines, which make up in part the duties of the Governor. To properly organize the many branches of the State Government is a job requiring experience in organization work. I am convinced that the voters of the State are more interested in the platforms that the candidates stand for than in the can-laws at present regulating the business and the every-day life of the people.

There is a tendency in the country today to keep piling on the statute books laws regulating the business and private affairs of the citizens. I am of the opinion that it is the part of wisdom that we learn our present laws and obey them rather than to bring into disrepute all law by further restrictive legislation.

If I am elected Governor, all laws on the statute books will be thoroughly and carefully enforced as far as my powers will reach. The chief concern in the State and Nation today is the strict enforcement of law and the absolute maintenance of peace and order. For the security of the individual and for the protection of property rights, law and order must be maintained.

If elected Governor, I pledge the best that is within me to carry out this statement.

If elected, pardons will be scarce at Frankfort, especially for the crime of taking human life. The reputation of our State must be bettered along this line.

High taxation is the sore spot with the people in the State and Nation. The legislative branch of our State Government writes the tax laws, but if elected Governor I will work with the Legislature in every way possible to bring about the lowering of our taxes. As a farmer I know what the burden of taxation is to the farmer and business man and home owner, and every effort must be made to reduce taxation.

The time has come when a halt must be called in increasing our State debt, and every effort to reduce it must be made. The obligations of debt are made by the State Legislature and not by the Governor, but if I am elected I will earnestly insist that State expenditures be kept within the revenue so that our debt will not be increased in the next Administration. Every effort must be made to reduce the State debt and if I am elected the veto power will be used to the limit to keep the appropriations

MILLIONS FOR STATE FROM BINGHAM ESTATE

A check for $1,216,618 was paid to the State of Kentucky through Sheriff Gray by the Fidelity and Columbia Trust Company in part settlement of the inheritance taxes due on the estate of Mrs. Lily Flagler Bingham. Payment follows the decision of the trust company not to contest further the payment of taxes imposed on the estate.

Additional inheritance tax payments of $1,774,000 will be made shortly, as well as $300,000 ad valorem tax, it was announced.

Total tax payments on the estate will approximate $4,000,000 when these installments are met; it is said. Suits for taxes for 1919 are pending, as well as for collection of 1920 taxes. The trust company contends that the estate had been divided by 1919.

WOMEN'S WOES

Paris Women Are Finding Relief at Last.

It does seem that women have more than a fair share of the aches and pains that afflict humanity; they must "keep up" must attend to duties in spite of constantly aching backs, or headaches, dizzy spells, bearing-down pains; they must stoop over, when stoop means torture. They must walk and bend and work with racking pains and many aches from kidney ills. Keeping the kidneys well has spared thousands of women much misery. Read of a remedy for kidneys only that is endorsed by people you know.

Mrs. J. R. Moore, 133 E. Eighth street, Paris, says: "I was in bad shape with my kidneys. My back nearly killed me with pain. There was a steady, dull ache just over my kidneys and I was weak and miserable. I often had to let my housework go undone and I got so dizzy black specks came before my eyes. My feet and ankles swelled. I doctored for a time, but got no relief until I began using Doan's Kidney Pills. My health was greatly improved in a short time and two boxes cured me. It is a pleasure for me to recommend Doan's." Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Moore had. JUSTICE AT FRANKFORT

(Courier-Journal)

The action of the Court of Appeals in reversing the Boyd Circuit Court in four of the Clayhole murder cases will be generally commended. Shade Combs, Leslie Combs, French Combs and George Allen, all Democrats, were tried and convicted on the testimony of Republicans charged with the same crime, and the Republicans were held by the Court as exempt from prosecution on the charge because they had testified in the cases of the men placed first on trial. The lower court is overruled because of error in its instructions to the jury and because of error in barring certain evidence for the defense.

The Court of Appeals decided recently that the defendants declared by Judge Halbert exempt from prosecution must stand trial. With the granting of a new trial to the convicted Democrats, all the defendants Democrats and Republicans alike, are placed upon the same plane, where it is hoped justice will be done regardless of politics.

There should be no politics in these proceedings. There was none in the action of the Appellate Court, a Republican Justice reading the opinion.

"IT WAS MIDNIGHT ON THE OCEAN"

It was midnight on the ocean. Not a street car was in sight; The sun was shining brightly, And it rained all day that night.

'Twas a summer day in winter, The snow fell like glass; A barefoot boy with shoes on Stood sitting on the grass.

'Twas evening and the rising sun Was setting in the West, And the little fishes in the trees Were huddling in their nest.

The rain was pouring down, The moon was shining bright, And everything that you could see Was hidden out of sight.

While the organ peeled potatoes, Lard was rendered by the choir, As the sexton rang the dish-rag Some one set the church on fire.

"Holy Smoke!" the preacher shouted In the rain he lost his hair, Now his head resembles Heaven, For there is no parting there.

Mr. Banta is survived by his widow, Mrs. Rena Banta, two brothers, Brack Banta, of near Paris, and Andy Banta, of Colorado, and by one sister, Mrs. Jonas Sparks, of Nicholas county.

The funeral was held Wednesday morning, with services conducted at the grave in Wilmore Cemetery, by Rev. Clarke, of Wilmore. The pallbearers were James Gillispie, Stanley Gillispie, Gabe Utterback, Wm. Wilson, Ben Reed and Edsel May.

PAXTON

—Claude Paxton, formerly freight agent for the Louisville & Nashville, at this place, and later general agent for the Chesapeake & Ohio road, at Mt. Sterling, died at his home in Ashland, Monday, after a long illness due to Bright's disease. Mr. Paxton will be well remembered here, where he resided for many years.

Mr. Paxton was a son of the late Dr. and Mrs. Paxton, pioneer residents of Paris. He was a man of fine character, possessed of an inexhaustible fund of humor, and was well-known as a vocalist, having a remarkable fine tenor voice. In the earlier days of Paris he was a member of several organizations giving amateur entertainments in Paris, and his services were always in demand, giving freely of his time and talent.

Mr. Paxton married Miss Addie Daugherty, of Owingsville, and leaves one son, Claude Bartlett Paxton, of Mt. Sterling, and two brothers, Arch Paxton, of Lexington, and Will B. Paxton, of New York, both of whom were formerly in the employ of the L. & N. in this city.

The body was brought to Owingsville, Tuesday, where the funeral and interment took place in the Owingsville Cemetery.

SPECIAL FEATURES AT ALAMO AND GRAND

While in the Little Northern California town of Jackson, taking scenes for "Boys Will Be Boys," Will Rogers' latest picture, showing at the Alamo and the Grand to-day, the star returned the many courtesies of the citizens by giving a complimentary showing of one of his previous pictures. He also told the audience that any suggestions for the betterment of the picture would be appreciated.

Truth has always been one of the biggest factors in history. Because of it, nations have been made and empires have fallen. A motion picture, dealing with Truth on a massive scale, is Paramount's production of "The Greatest Truth," which comes to the Alamo and Grand to-day. It is a continental production of the finest grade and Mia May is the feature player.

Rarely does a motion picture come to this city more favorably heralded by reviewers, than does the Fox photoplay, "A Self-Made Man," which will open at the Alamo and Grand to-morrow. The screen story has been playing to large audiences wherever it has been shown, and should meet with a hearty welcome here. From all accounts, nothing has been neglected in the way of capable direction,

Thomas Meighan, Pauline Stark, Theodore Roberts, Charles Ogle in "IF YOU BELIEVE IT, IT'S SO"

The greatest drama Meighan ever made. If you believe it, it's so. A picture that has every ingredient of entertainment. If you believe it, it's so. Don't miss it.

ROBINSON CRUSOE, MUTT AND JEFF, PATHE REVIEW.

Artistic settings and excellent acting. The story contains much lively comedy.

With memories of all the great pictures you have seen, permit us to call your attention to one which will rank with the greatest of them, embodying as it does all of the attributes which have gone towards making the others great. This is Thomas Meighan's latest Paramount picture, "If You Believe It, It's So." This is the powerful and convincing story of how a hardened city crook was reformed and found love and peace. Told with a sureness and directness which must appeal to you, the story is interpreted by a cast which includes such popular players as Pauline Stark, Theodore Roberts, Joseph Dowling and Charles Ogle. At the Alamo and Grand Monday afternoon and night (New Year's Day.)
